Remembrance Sunday

The Parish Communion is starting slightly later today to enable us to gather in the churchyard at 10.55am for the Act of Remembrance.

After the Parish Communion has ended, we will make our way outside to the war memorial, where we will be joined by many local people, including members of the Girls Brigade, Stanmore Air Cadets, Brownies, Rainbows and Guides.

Wreaths will be laid by various groups/organisations, including: St John's Church and St John's School.

Café St Jean

The café will be busier than usual today, as we welcome those who have attended the Act of Remembrance.

Admission to Communion and Confirmation Classes - Today

The classes begin today and will commence once the candidates and leaders have had a drink in Café St Jean. They will meet in Church House (first floor). Please speak to Becky Stone if you have any questions.

The Revd Irene Lawrence, Assistant Curate at St Alban's North Harrow, is speaking about the use of sign language in worship.

Safeguarding Sunday 16th November

Next Sunday, the 9.30am service will be dedicated to deepening our understanding of safeguarding.

It is an essential part of our church family life together that we all play our part to create a 'space' that is even safer for everyone, and to thank those working behind the scenes to make our churches safer for all.
